

To the FCC
Media Consolidation

I am against the FCC efforts to effect greater media consolidation. I believe further limiting the marketplace for media consumption will be a serious impairment for our citizens to obtain a balanced and nuanced view of issues facing this country. I believe media consolidation will restrict Americans ability to obtain sufficient information to form intelligent and informed opinions and to act on those opinions as active citizens of this country.